

Making Your Lunch

after William Carlos Williams

You called from break to say thank you for the peaches-- you had enjoyed them so. And I did not tell you. That because the fruit was not quite ripe, because I did not want you to taste that bitter/tart--I sugared each slice. So that each cut fruit was sweet. That you should eat it.
